

Exercise #1

Be Concise

It's not easy to be concise. You've got to deliver a lot of information in as few words as possible. How do you be brief and comprehensive at the same time? Practice. Practice. Practice.

Write one sentence that is grammatically correct and is 100 words long. It can be about anything but it must meet the word count.

Rewrite the above sentence in ten words or less. Yes, only ten words.

Write two sentences. One with 70 words and the other with only 7 words.
